PREFACE

Based on the blessing of the Almighty God "Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa", the writer can complete the lesson book entitles English for Food and Beverage Operation. This lesson book is designed on behalf of teaching learning material development as an output of DRPM-PTUPT 2019.

In order to obtain authentic materials, the researchers conducted surveys in some hotels in Bali. It is expected that by studying the materials in this lesson book the students can achieve the learning achievement that they are able to communicate in English both spoken and written in the context of hospitality industry, especially Food and Beverage Department. The graduates of in Hotel Program Study and Business Management of Tourism Department, State Polytechnic of Bali are targeted to be competence in the job fields of food and beverage operation where English is used for the international communication. In realizing this target, the teaching learning process should be contxtual with the current industry supported by relevant teaching module and method. Therefore, this lesson book attempts to accommodate the link and match between classroom instruction and the need of the industry by providing authentic materials taken from the hotels in Bali.

Each unit of this book is started from speaking, reading, writing, and practices supplemented with language expressions and grammar points. Fluency in speaking is the primary focus but it doesn't ignore the accuracy. The students are given a wide range of using their English for communication. This book also enables the instructor to conduct various speaking activity, such as role play, guessing games, narrative, problem solving, and presentation. These speaking activities will be successful if they fulfill the criteria of lots of speaking, involving, clear outcome, challenging, and supported. These five criteria of speaking activities can be achieved by using this book because the students are given a huge space to practice their English using variety of language. Everyone will be engaged during the discussion to do practices provided in the book.

The writer expects some constructive inputs to develop this book into authentic source of mastering English for special purposes (ESP), therefore advice, suggestion, and other contributions are gratefully welcomed in order to make some improvements.
