Dear Authors of iCAST2020 Conference

Unfortunately, your paper ID: 1570664009 titled: User Requirement and Use Case Diagram for Traveler Tracking Application In Tourist Destination cannot be published in IEEE because it was rejected. Based on this reason, we are going to recommend your paper to publish in another publisher such as Atlantis Press or ScitePress, but we are sorry you have to be charged an additional payment of Rp 500.000, and we will inform you later about this payment after finish all of the preparations and ready to publish in new publisher.

Due to this issue, we need an agreement from all of the authors by filling a form in google form at: <https://forms.gle/QLKNcnjX2KxQdktK9>, we are waiting for all of the author responses (continue or withdraw) until July 31, 2021. Furthermore, if you agree to continue your paper to be processed into the next step of the publication process, we need your paper in word format. If there is no response from the authors until that time deadline so we will not process your paper, and we assume that you are withdrawing your paper. Thank you.
